“On A Mission From God”

Rolling Road Show Brings the “Blues Brothers” Free Outdoor Screening to Old Joliet Prison Park, August 13, 2010.

The City of Joliet is excited to be a key part of the “Alamo Drafthouse and The Levi’s Brand ‘We Are All Workers’ – 2010 Rolling Roadshow Tour.”

On Friday, August 13, 2010, The Rolling Roadshow will bring a 50 foot outdoor movie screen to the city’s Old Joliet Prison Park, located just beyond the walls of the Collins Street Prison, to present a free outdoor movie “The Blues Brothers.”

Joliet joins the ranks of ROBOCOP in Detroit, MI at the Russell Industrial Center, ROCKY, ROCKY II and ROCKY III in Philadelphia, PA at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and the GODFATHER II in New York, N.Y. at the Rooftop Near Little Italy. For complete information on the “Alamo Drafthouse and The Levi’s Brand ‘We Are All Workers’ – 2010 Rolling Roadshow Tour” visit www.rollingroadshow.com .

The event will be free to the public, with open “lawn seating” on the parking lots south of the prison walls. Public will be encouraged to bring their own blankets and chairs for the iconic movie screening beyond the walls of the prison. More details will be released as they become available.

Working closely with the Collins Street Prison Task Force, Senator A.J. Wilhelmi, Representative Jack McGuire, and Councilwoman Susie Barber, the City of Joliet continues its momentum of promoting this location as a tourist destination.

The City of Joliet is the fourth largest city in the state of Illinois, located just 45 miles southwest of Chicago’s Loop. Home to over 152,000 residents, in addition to thriving businesses and attractions, the City of Joliet is easily accessible by rail, auto and bus transit. A perfect place to live, work and play, Joliet is constantly striving to promote growth and diversity.
