Plenty of Parking for Friday's Blues Brothers Event Free Public Movie outside the Old Joliet Prison, Collins Street

The Joliet Police Department in partnership with the Alamo Drafthouse Rolling Roadshow crew will be directing all attendees to the free parking areas along Collins Street during the free public movie THE BLUES BROTHERS this Friday August 13.

Attendees are encouraged to arrive by or before 8PM for the movie's 8:30PM start time and bring their blankets and lawn chairs for "lawn seating" on the parking lots of the Old Joliet Prison at 1125 N. Collins Street, Joliet. The Free movie will be shown in its complete unedited format and is rated 'R,' we urge the public to exercise discretion and ensure all minors are accompanied by an adult. The film will begin at 8:30PM – 10:30PM on a 50 foot outdoor movie screen outside the Old Joliet Prison.

Movie goers are encouraged to carpool to the event and watch for on site signage along Collins Street regarding available parking. Parking areas will be located along Gross Street, Bruce Street and the large warehouse lot across from the event area on Collins Street. Joliet Police officers will direct motorists.
