JOLIET POLICE MAKE ARRESTS IN ARMED ROBBERY CASE

On January 4, 2014, the Joliet Police Department responded to the area of St. Joseph and St. Francis Streets in reference to a citizen who had been robbed at gunpoint. The victim was sitting in his disabled vehicle when he was approached by several subjects. One of the subjects asked if the victim needed help and then proceeded to pull out a handgun, point it at the victim, and rob him of his belongings. The suspects fled the area in a gold Buick.

The suspect vehicle was later found in the 1400 block of Rickey and was towed and impounded. Joliet Police Detectives conducted a follow-up investigation and interviewed numerous witnesses and citizens who were able to identify the suspects. Arrest warrants were issued for the two suspects. On Tuesday afternoon, February 11, 2014, the two suspects were located and arrested at the corner of Hickory and Oneida Streets by members of the Joliet Police Department.

Taken into custody were:

- Jordan C. Caples, age 20, of the 200 block of North Hickory
- Davonte J. Farries, age 20, of the 200 block of Madison

Both were charged with Armed Robbery and taken to the Will County Adult Detention Facility. Bond was set at $500,000 (10% to apply).

The investigation will continue by the Joliet Police Department Investigation Division. Any citizen with information on this or similar robberies in the area are asked to contact the Joliet Police Department Investigation Division at 815-724-3020.
