THE ILLINOIS MUNICIPAL LEAGUE ANNUAL CONFERENCE HELD SEPTEMBER 18 – 20, 2014

CITY OF JOLIET: On Friday, September 19, 2014, Joliet City Councilwoman At Large, Jan Hallums-Quillman, attended the Illinois Municipal League’s annual conference at the Hilton Hotel in downtown Chicago.

The session opened with Governor Quinn addressing the gathering of concerned municipal elected officials from around the State of Illinois to hear about the Governor’s perspective on economic development, education, recent legislation, as well as numerous other issues.

The remainder of the conference was filled with educational presentations on current city issues such as revitalizing the local economy, public transparency, how to get a State grant, and one session titled “Women in Government Service - Boost Your Leadership Presence”.

Councilwoman Quillman stated, “It was a wonderful opportunity to meet the Governor personally and learn about current affairs that affect the lives of our residents, and also to network and meet with Mayors and Council people from all over the state.”
