CITY OF JOLIET REMINDS RESIDENTS OF NEW COUNCILMANIC DISTRICTS BOUNDARIES

On November 4, 2013, the City of Joliet approved a plan to redistrict the five Councilmanic Districts commencing with the 2015 District Council Elections.

Under Federal and State law the City is required to periodically reapportion the five Councilmanic Districts in order to maintain roughly equal populations within each district.

The City Administration developed a proposal for redistricting that took into account the growth in Census numbers and the need to balance population within each district. Boundaries of the five Councilmanic Districts were adjusted accordingly and will be used for the April 7, 2015, District Council election.

The approved boundary map, as well as district overlay maps, can be found on the City of Joliet’s home page http://www.cityofjoliet.info. Hard copies of these maps are also available for inspection in the City Clerk’s office during regular business hours.
